A NEW CAPTIVATING SUSPENSE SERIES – THE SEA RESCUE

The first part, Black Sails, is a dense and evocative psychological thriller.

The Sea Rescue series centres on a rescue station located on an idyllic island in the Stockholm archipelago and run by a small, tight-knit group of volunteers. It's a psychological yet action-packed drama. Relationship-driven, with a nice sense of community among the sea rescue volunteers that the reader gets to know. Dead Calm meets the Swedish TV series The Archipelago Doctor.

BLACK SAILS

It's a scorching hot July day when Annika and her colleague Nadia from the sea rescue station come across a sailboat drifting aimlessly in the middle of open water in the Stockholm archipelago. It's immediately clear that something is not right, and they steer in closer to find out what's happened. The boat is empty.

A few days earlier, Joanna and her brother Zach start their sailing vacation together. They haven't seen each other in years when they finally reunite on their father's old jewel. The sea lies calm as a mirror and the archipelago could not be more beautiful as the two of them weigh anchor. Joanna is carrying a heavy grief but is looking forward to the feeling of freedom and tranquillity the sea has always brought her. But nothing goes as planned, for under its calm surface hides a deeper evil.

THE GOTLAND MYSTERIES

Meet the charismatic Walla Hammar and her closest in a new suspense series set on southeastern Gotland. Different sides of the island and of human nature come face to face in dramatic stories. Objectivity against superstition, good against evil, human against animal, revenge against forgiveness, love against hate.

BLOOD MEAL
447 PAGES

BLOOD MEAL

A series of seizures, some fatal, strike the inhabitants of a holiday resort on the south east coast of the Gotland. There are also signs of imbalance moving in over the island. Is it nature running amok, or is there an evil hand at work?

Two very different investigation teams take shape. They attempt to solve the mystery using radically opposing starting points and methods. Intuition and a sense of the "other" faces off against facts and analysis. As the screw tightens and more lives are put on the line, a deadly fight against time begins.

"An extremely well written novel with extra everything."

FREE FROM GUILT

The private life of the priest Samuel Williams is in turmoil. He and his girlfriend are expecting a child. But still he cannot stop thinking about a certain policeman named Maja-Sofia, whom he met in a murder investigation he was involved in a few months earlier.

Samuel decides to take time off and go for a retreat to a monastery nearby, to get all his thoughts and feelings in order. But just as he has decided on how to outline his future, he learns that a woman in Klockarvik has died and that another has become seriously ill.

Now it is up to Samuel to find out if the monastery may be involved and if the man who participated in the same retreat as Samuel is really who he claims to be. And what about the former priest who suddenly appears, does he have anything to hide?

DIE FOR OUR SINS

Priest Samuel Williams has reluctantly taken a position in a sleepy village in Dalarna. But when he arrives, he realizes the job might not bring as much peace and quiet as he thought. Just outside of the church, a dead man has been placed up against two iron crosses, making it look as if he was crucified.

Samuel and the local criminal inspector Maja-Sofia Rantatalo make a great team, but the closer the investigation gets to a solution, the closer the priest and the Criminal Inspector get to each other ...

"From the very first page, I fell in love with the characters Marianne Cedervall created: They do have their flaws but are deeply human. She treats them with a lot of warmth – something I always appreciate. And the setting is great! Cedervall skillfully knows how to draw you into her book, tell you the story of a murder which at its core is the story of an unlucky family. It is gripping till the very end."

THE CONFERENCE

At this conference, a dysfunctional group of colleagues are chased by a ruthless killer. They are forced to work together to survive.

A group of municipal employees arrive at a picturesque conference center, situated by the lake Kolarsjön at the foot of a mountain. They are there to discuss a controversial project that has angered many, both in the small town and among the employees themselves. What they don't know is that someone is watching them from the other side of the lake. Someone who wants revenge. And when darkness starts to fall, they begin to disappear – one by one.

A BLOOD SOAKED THRILLER ABOUT THE WORST TEAMBUILDING EXERCISE YOU COULD POSSIBLY IMAGINE.

THE EBBA TAPPER SERIES

The once confident police officer Ebba Tapper has, after an incident, lost her dignity and her job as a police officer when the narcissistic and charismatic defense lawyer Angela Köhler turns up and wants help with a high profile case which is all over media. Angela becomes a mentor to Ebba and a kind of love-hatred arises between them where the police in Ebba has to deal with the fact that Angela balances on the edge of the law. But when the surface breaks and Angela's destructive side is exposed, Ebba sees a vulnerable woman and their relationship deepens as they come to depend on each other. Two broken souls with shields of steel.

"The Bodyguard is entertainment in a fast tempo, and Anna Karolina is superb at unpredictable stories. She stands out in an appealing way in the crime novel genre."

BLUE NOTES

What if there was a pill to cure prolonged grief?

Elizabeth's heart is broken when her son dies of a serious heart defect. A few years later, the pharmaceutical company she works for is the first in the world to develop a pill directly targeting grief. Professor Thorsten Gjeldsted, who studies its effects at Aarhus University, suspects the data is being manipulated to hide a disturbing side effect. Together with two students, he tries to find out who is behind it and.

What happens when we turn the existential pain of losing a loved one into a mental disease? Blue Notes is an intriguing novel about how far we are willing to go to avoid pain, and if grief is the prize we pay for love.

STORIES THAT STAY FOR A LONG TIME

Johan Ehn is a writer, an actor, director, play writer and artistic director at a theatre group. After two highly praised YA novels, for which he was nominated to the 2020 Nordic Council Children and Young People's Literary Prize and won the Nils Holgersson Plaque 2020, he now presents his first literary fiction novel for adults with Not Dead Yet.

NOT DEAD YET

Eighty-four-year-old Elis wakes up at the cardiac intensive care unit after a strained afternoon celebrating Christmas Eve with his family. From the hospital bed he relives moments of his life with new eyes. He gets to meet those who have meant the most to him. The one he called Mother, the one he called Mom, his first love and the woman he ended up marrying. He gains access to those crucial moments in his life: Holidays spent with his beloved foster family in Dalarna, the challenging task of parenting a child, being a husband, his career at the Tele Communications Network/ Televerket, and relishing the gift of music. At the hospital he befriends the vibrant male nurse Tony, who dares to joke about death.

Not Dead Yet is both a gripping elegy over an era that is no more, and a celebration to life itself.

NORA, OR BURN OSLO BURN

How jealous can a person be? How often can you look at a stranger's Instagram? How much menstrual pain do you have to endure? Is Norway the heart of paradise?

In Nora, or Burn Oslo Burn, an autofictional novel full of black comedy, Johanna Frid turns her sharp eye to two of our time's most serious female ailments: Instagram and endometriosis.

SPARKLE, DAZE, AMAZE

Allow us to present Penny Löwe, the literary wonder kid who, at the age of twenty, wrote a novel which everyone spoke of and which won the most prestigious literary award in Sweden.

Once a shooting star, Penny is now back from a decadent stay in London, without ideas for the new novel and broke after spending the whole advance. The creative trip she imagined it to be, did not go as planned.

But her friend Lola comes up with a solution. She will help Penny find her inspiration again. Together they construct an equally unconventional as life-threatening plan. Who is Lola – a gift from above or a muse from hell?

Sparkle, Daze, Amaze is an entertaining, fast-paced and playful novel about destructive friendships, writer's block and the pursuit for the "genuine literature". Combining quick-witted prose with psychological depth Jenny Jägerfeld brings the reader on an expedition of identity, authenticity and autofiction's role for the contemporary novel: must a writer have lived to write?

HUMOR, INTELLIGENCE AND INTEGRITY

Bianca Kronlöf is one of Sweden's most interesting voices. She is an actor and comedian and has created a platform as one who is not afraid to express her thoughts. She has been praised for her feminist satire and her shows are played for sold-out houses. Even when the jokes point out injustices and distortions in society, Bianca Kronlöf's tone is always warm and inclusive.

LETTERS TO MEN

About emotions, sex, violence, masculinity. To the slack and the hard. To dad and grandpa. To the unborn son. To the one night stand. To you who have bought the myth and to you who have never raised your hand.

Are you one of them?

Letters to Men is a book about structures in society and about male and female behaviors. It deals with bad behaviors but is never judgemental.

“Short, cheeky, empathetic, provocative – something to laugh out loud to and to be touched by. Bianca Kronlöf’s Letters to Men is a future feminist standard work for men. I am proud and enormously happy to work with this talented, serious and fun author.”

SARA NYSTRÖM, PUBLISHER AT ALBERT BONNIERS, SWEDEN

“Bianca Kronlöf primarily emphasizes individual responsibility. What we do matters, and it is our duty to intervene. When it comes to the issue of men’s violence, it is not enough for a few men to get involved in the issue. A first step to change can be to read this book, which efficiently and pedagogically punctures the defenses and excuses we men use to avoid calling ourselves or showing moral courage.”

WHY DEMOCRACY - ON KNOWLEDGE AND RULE OF THE MANY

In Why Democracy, Åsa Wikforss clarifies what role knowledge has in a democracy and explains why and in what way the threats to knowledge represents a threat to democracy.

The book aims to spread knowledge about one of our times most important questions and to give us the tools necessary to shield democracy in this post-truth era.

Åsa Wikforss' brother Mårten Wikforss, journalist, contributes with reflections on the unique character and special values of democracy.

COMBINING PHILOSOPHY, PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

ALTERNATIVE FACTS – ON KNOWLEDGE AND ITS ENEMIES

We live in the era of ‘post truth’ and as the world is being flooded with fake news, conspiracy theories and science denial we look for a solution.

Alternative Facts explains what distinguishes knowledge from mere opinion, why it is so easy to sow doubt and disinform, why truth is so hard and how the social nature of human knowledge makes us vulnerable to the manipulation of trust.

261 PAGES

“Knowledge stands at the center of human existence, it is what sets us apart from the other animals and is what makes human cooperation and progress possible. When knowledge is under threat we are all under threat. Philosophy gives us the tools we need to understand the challenges and meet the enemies of knowledge, and I felt that as a philosopher it was time to step up to the plate.” Åsa Wikforss, on writing the book

“A thorough, sensible, and beautifully reasoned analysis of one of the most pressing issues of our time.”

LIKED – THE SUPERPOWER OF BEING AUTHENTIC, POSITIVE AND RELEVANT

In a world which chases after superficial popularity and status to an increasing degree, we have lost one of our human superpowers: likeability. We have everything to gain from getting it back.

Research shows that likeability has great positive effects in many areas in our lives. Sincere, well-grounded likeability contributes to increase our wellbeing, improves our health and leads to greater success. Liked, describes what this power consists of, and the effects it can have in lives as well as our surroundings.

What must we do to find our way back to, or to reinforce, this power? Paradoxically, the answer is: not much. To develop natural likeability, we should actually 'do' less, and 'be' more by training an increased awareness. Liked, shows how we can achieve this.

New book after mega success Happy Happy

“Lars-Johan Åge combines his scientific acuity with a deep personal touch when he shows us that in times of chasing superficial popularity, we seem to have forgotten one of our real human superpowers, to be liked and popular. He also shows us how we can find and strengthen our likeability – and thereby increase the quality of our lives.”

"I read Happy Happy on the flight home from the London Book Fair and it instantly hit a nerve. The promise of being able to reach something bigger and better than win-win is bound to set a new standard in the world of negotiations. On a professional and on a personal level. I will certainly aim for more "Happy Happy" results in the future!"

STEPHANIE WALTER, CAMPUS VERLAG

PROFESSOR ÅGE

Professor Lars-Johan Åge has studied negotiation techniques at Harvard Law School. He has worked with the FBI's hostage negotiators and the rapid-response team of the Swedish police force. He has also analysed the world's best negotiators in hostage situations, business and diplomacy – people who know how to make use of the power of likeability. With his deep knowledge and experience from these areas, he has now written the first handbook about how we can achieve sincere likeability.

MONSTERS IN THERAPY

A psychologist has disappeared. At her reception a collection of documents is found: a work journal, letters, research material and transcriptions of the therapy sessions she has conducted within the framework of a book project. In the notes we can follow the conversations with an identity-disordered doctor, a lesbian psychopath vampire, a manic scientist's dreaded offspring and a narcissistic dandy. They turn out to be some of the most iconic monsters of Gothic horror literature – Dr. Jekyll, Carmilla, Frankenstein's monster and Dorian Gray – and they struggle with timeless dilemmas that we can all recognize.

"It is an important political act by Jägerfeld and Strandberg that they, in an intelligent pop culture way, dig deeper into the literary monsters. If there is anything we need, to be able to face both the stranger outside and within, it is this insight; monsters are human, and humans are monsters."

THE UNLIKELY MURDERER

For 34 years the unresolved murder of Swedish Prime Minister Olof Palme has haunted an entire nation – not to say the world. After 12 years of research that resulted in the book The Unlikely Murderer, journalist Thomas Pettersson brought the case to an end. He had not only written a bestseller, he had also solved the murder that had left the Swedish police perplexed.

The findings of Thomas Pettersson renewed the police investigation of Stig Engström in 2017, and it led to the final judiciary closure in June 2020.

THE LAST BLACK SALT

A dream without a beginning or an end.

A son and a father wander through a scorched landscape. They are on their way to the sea. Or have they already been there? Maybe they just want to find happiness. But do they have to walk through hell to get there or is everything just a dream? A dream without a beginning or an end. Where a son and a father wander not just in a scorched landscape but also in their inner life, with questions without words.

In The Last Black Salt Henrik Lange has taken the Swedish author Pär Lagerkvist's poetry and shortstories from Evil fairy tales and poured them into Cormac McCarthy's novel The Road and then mixed them all with Dante's The Divine Comedy. The result is a story about a wanderer to the light.
